

ibms – Inspiring your child's journey to independence international bilingual montessori school

Nido (U3) ♦ Children's House
Reception Class ♦ Primary School

Located in Frankfurt's Westend district, ibms international bilingual montessori school is a prestigious bilingual (English/German) Kindergarten and primary school that follows the Montessori teaching principles.

The Kindergarten includes "Nido" (18 months to 3 years), and a nursery school known as "Children's House" (3-5 years).

For the next possible date we are looking for a full-time/part-time

Early Childhood Educators (f/m/d)

Responsibilities and tasks:

- Warm, loving, and positive personality
- Degree or Masters in Early Childhood Education, Erzieher/ in, Sozialpädagoge/ in, or other relevant qualifications
- Montessori training or readiness to acquire it
- English speaker with mother tongue level fluency (no German required)
- Native German speaker with a good level of understanding of spoken and written English
- Experience in working with toddlers and young children up to the age of 6 years
- Good observation and reflection skills
- Ability to multitask easily
- Good listening and communication skills
- Willingness to take responsibility and work independently as well as in a team

What we can offer you

- International environment with colleagues from over 15 nations
- Attractive working environment with spacious and new indoor and outdoor areas
- Central location with good public transport connections
- Organic caterer
- Reduced school fees for employees' children in the school area
- Possibility to participate in the Montessori diploma course
- Salary in line with TVöD with additional benefits (job ticket, further training)
- 37 days holiday

We look forward to receiving your application by e-mail to office@ibms-frankfurt.com.